

Hillsong United, Divine Exchange

Song name: Divine Exchange Artist: Abundant Life Ministries

My heart is captivated Lord, by You alone captured by the awesomeness of You alone melted by the grace and mercy You have shown I stand in wonder

I reach to you the one who make the blind eyes see who breaks the chains of sickness with authority restoring of what was broken so it may fly again

I live to worship you I breathe to worship to you all of my days, your face I'll seek

For as I worship you You lead me to that place
To that place of divine exchange
