

Hillsong United, Kiss Of Heaven

I'm walking a new walk
I'll never be the same again
Dancing a new dance in Your Holy Spirit Rain
Your breath of life has overwhelmed me and set my spirit free
I'm living a new life, underneath Your morning star Running a new race, in the shadow of Your love
Your love is immeasurable, too deep to comprehend

My Jesus, dream-maker
My Jesus, live-giver
I'm living under the Kiss of Heaven, and I'll never ever be the same again

I'm singing a new song in the presence of The King
Giving You my heart
That is all that I can bring
You lit a fire inside of me
That I thought would never burn again
I thank You, my Father, for all You've done
And all You're going to do
My past behind me and You before me
I press on for more
I'm living in the embrace of Heaven
And I'll never ever be the same again
