

Hillsong United, You Are My Rock

There's a voice in the silence, piercing the darkness of my own selfish soul
There's a cry deep within me, a yearning to tell you
I look to you, Lord

I can pretend I don't run from the feelings I'm trying to hide
Must get the focus of me and my problems
I look to the cross

You are my Rock
On You I stand
Safe from the storms that surround me
You're my only Rock, In you I can
Don't have to rely on my own strength.
