

Hippos, Lost It

can you see what I am seeing now that I am on my own I can't explain the way I'm feeling I question everything I know I can't believe what she said
it went straight to my head I'm lacking inspiration
where's my inspiration
I had it , and I lost it,
now you've got to help me get it back again I can't believe a word she says to me it brings me closer to insanity why can't she just understand the things she says could kill a man

I can't believe what she said
it went straight to my head
I'm lacking inspiration
where's my inspiration
I had it , and I lost it,
now you've got to help me get it back again
I can't take it I'll never make it the things she says are bringing me down
