

His Hero Is Gone, Scare Tactic

Full pressure fear forced interrogation Dealers in blood pit your friends as your foes with threats on your free life dangle the shackles before fear filled eyes Extracting the serum of truth and injecting the venom of lies Back in again Offering betrayal as your saviour Ripping out your heart and setting it safely out of reach then demanding you sweat forth lies to have it back again Under heat lamps and gunpoint they'll force you to confess Have you believe you'll walk if you rat on the rest
