

Hissyfits, Baby

Baby, I've got a piece of you inside of me
It's growing bigger every breath I take
And I start to shake cause you're inside of me

Darlin', think I'm in trouble now that I've let you in
And I don't know how you got under my skin
I just can't believe that you're inside of me

Everything'll be all right
You say, "Everything'll be all right"
And you'll hold me tight
Oh, everything'll be all right
Darlin' hold me tight, tell me everything's all right

Baby where do we go from here
Where did we go wrong?
I'm paralyzed with fear that you're already gone
And I'll never see you smile again at me
