

Hit The Lights, It's All The Rage

We are, we are, we are exactly what you want to be where you've been and what you've done mean nothing

you said you wanted out but now you want to go you said you had a doubt, but now you think you know you are, you are, you are about getting low (x2) you're dying for anything brand new, hate feeling cheap but you love being used you want out but you dig the abuse, cause it's all you know

where you've been and what you've done mean nothing

Tear the nails from your fingertips smear the blood across your lips cause its all the rage with all the kids back home while we wrap our blood around our wrists decorate the walls with our fists live life like its hit or miss whoah

you're dying for anything brand new,
hate feeling cheap but you love being used
you want out but you dig the abuse, cause it's all you know (x2)

where you've been and what you've done mean nothing

We are exactly what you want to be
where you've been and what you've done mean nothing

you are, you are, you are about getting low

you're dying for anything brand new,
hate feeling cheap but you love being used
you want out but you dig the abuse, cause it's all you know

where you've been and what you've done mean nothing

We are exactly what you want to be
where you've been and what you've done mean nothing
where you've been and what you've done mean nothing
where you've been and what you've done mean nothing to me
