Hocico, Where Angels Don't Sing

One scream awakes the beast your plea will be denied I can smell all those entrails they call me to start the feast

Nightmares will be raping your souls welcome where human warmth is ice Nightmares feeding from your fears welcome to see your world collides

I'm the envoy to cure your fantasies I'm the envoy to redeem all your sins

I'm the savior of your lewdnesses I'm your savior, don't you wanna understand?

You contort under my feet your blood has splashed my eyes you still scream, I want you to resist but you only want to rest in peace

I enjoy your screams, I kill and my hate exists I can rape your dreams, I kill and my soul exists

You're there where angels don't sing you lie where compassion's a myth nightmares will be raping your souls welcome where human warmth is ice Nightmares feeding from your fears welcome to see your world collides
