

Holden & Thompson, Nothing

Nothing to hold the falling
So how can I survive this sinking feeling

Don't you know it's gone too wrong
Early warning
How could it have come to this
We're dyin' tryin'
It's a long way down
but no one in this crowd
Can stop me from hitting the ground

'Cuz now I've got nothing to hold the falling
So how can I survive this sinking feeling

Nothing to hold the falling
So how can I survive this sinking feeling

Nothing to hold the falling
So how can I survive this sinking feeling

Nothing to hold the falling
So how can I survive this sinking feeling

Nothing to hold the falling
So how can I survive this sinking feeling

Nothing to hold the falling
so how can I survive this sinking feeling

Nothing to hold the falling
So how can I survive this sinking feeling
