

Hollow Bones, Epiphany

What have you done to me to be so weird?
Why do these things become much bigger than the world?
I burned my infant light to do this all again Relive this stupid lie, I've been told before

So cut your head off boy and breathe it in Tomorrow's another day to start the cure
We wait on paradise, the worst is yet to come Refuse to be, to be a man, a man, a man

I've burned my candle at both ends
The flames have scorched the memories
I don't want to know
I don't want to know

And I'm praying as you die to sleep that these killers won't come bleed you again, again

Just stop your whining son, I beg you please stand up to help yourself, this shit don't come for free Amazed by hallucinations, things you never were you can lay down right here and die boy, just like you've done before

I've burned my candle at both ends
The flames have scorched the memories
I don't want to know
I don't want to know

And I'm praying as you die to sleep
that these killers won't come bleed you again, not again

Your beauty lies above the clouds your kindness knows the way to rise above with angel's wings I said please don't cry I know we'll be together again forever
someday
someday
someday
someday
