

Hollow Bones, Promise

Feel I won't survive out here maybe I'm an ugly man blinded by the years I've tried and I'm holding on...
I can feel this in my bones, if truth is love we'll make our own
I lay my body down to sleep and I pray that the demons won't try to cut me

Bended tongue, bleeding knees
bleeding tongue just set me free

Silence keeps the dead men sleeping, fair maidens bound and weeping wipe your tears and your fears away, know that no one is going to save you Just like the old man told me, you'll never be enough
I heard the whore's whole story

I'll never bleed
I'll never scream
I'll never feel for you

Bended tongue, bleeding knees
bleeding tongue just set me free

I never needed you
I'll never bleed again
and I believe you'll beg for forgiveness

-Solo-

Bended tongue, bleeding knees
bleeding tongue just set me free

I never needed you
I'll never bleed again
and I believe
you'll beg for forgiveness

I never needed you
I'll never bleed again
and I believe

I never needed you
I'll never bleed again
and I believe
you'll beg for forgiveness.
