

Holly Blue, Tic-Tac Sound

Your eyes, big sparks
So set me on fire, set me on fire
Set me on fire, burn me down.

Everyone breathes, everyone cries
Everyone's heart's beating till the last beat
Everyone trusts, everyone lies
Everyone loves but everybody dies.

Join me, join me (pray, pray)
We will take a big step... backwards
Join me, join me. (pray, pray)

Tell me why I should trust only the one book
Tell me why I should learn from the others
Big things pass away but the small ones never die
Everyone can be wrong but not everyone can be right
