

Holly Johnson, In And Out Of Love

Feeling you're gonna get the ceiling
Just who are you deceiving yourself
Or someone falling in and out
In and out of Love,
What are you thinking of?
In and out of Love,
Your heart has had enough!

Dreaming your smile for every beaming
You know that time is fleeting
So never stop your grieving, in and out
In and out of Love,
What are you thinking of?
In and out of Love,
Your heart has had enough!

And through our whole eternity
I forgive you, you forgive me
Let it float from your soul,
Let it go, let it go!
Let it go!

In and out of Love,
What are you thinking of?
In and out of Love,
Your heart has had enough!

(In and out of Love
In and out of Love)
