

Holly Palmer, Fourteen Year Old Moment

Get together
Get married
Have a party
Have a baby
Isn't it wonderful?
Won't it just be wonderful?

Then get a better job
Get some money
Get a brand new car
Get somewhere sunny

A fourteen year old moment
Is fourteen hundred miles away
A fourteen year old moment
Ain't got nothing on today

Got bored
Got lazy
Got horny
Things got too crazy
But you were so good
So good

A fourteen year old moment
Is fourteen hundred miles away
A fourteen year old moment
Ain't got nothing on today
A fourteen year old moment
Is fourteen hundred miles away
Those fifty golden candles ain't got more than a flame
No more than your name

So get out, get over it, get under, get by, get somebody else

Get a friend
Get a neighbor
Get a dog
Get yourself a savior
Pick yourself up
Knock yourself out

A fourteen year old moment
Is fourteen hundred miles away
A fourteen year old moment
Ain't got nothing on today
A fourteen year old moment
Is fourteen hundred miles away
A fourteen year old moment
Ain't got nothing on today
