

Hollywood Porn Stars, Marilyn

You wanna do it but telling no one
You wanna keep it as if you were gone
The only reason of having secrets
Is that nobody gives you interest
You wanna do it outside of no one
But the misery was there from the start
Nobody finds solutions for it
You only think about what you miss

Chorus :
Come, we feel the same
Cause on your social rise
You lost your head
So come on

Your own good ideas with naked humans
Have shocked the country, you're on the balance
For many reasons you've been out of side,
The only season, when you're right
The crowd is calling where are you
There's something stupid about you
Living is easy, what about your friends
Or will you appear when you will need them

Chorus

You wanna do it but telling no one
You wanna keep it as if you were gone
The only reason of having secrets
Is that nobody gives you interest
You wanna do it outside of no one
But the misery was there from the start
Nobody finds solutions for it
You only think about what you miss
