

Holy Blood, Jerusalem

Jerusalem

Day will come, heaven will shine
All the land will burn then
And the holy town of Jerusalem
Will come down from heaven, in God's glory

All the land will burn
When Jerusalem will come down

Holy town, Jerusalem
Unearthly, but coming down from heaven
Opens the gates to all
Who take salvation

God's truth will be made
The sinful world will burn
But for God's sons of truth
Jerusalem will come down

All the land will burn
When Jerusalem will come down

Hey, open your eyes
Hey, listen, the land
Hey, holy day
Hey, not so far away
Hey open your eyes
Hey, save yourself
Hey, anger will come
But the holy town
Will be open to every holy person

A flame of furious fire
Will burn this land
For all the sins
The anger of God will avenge

The day will come holy and fearful
All the land will then burn
And He who sits on the throne
Will open the gates to Jerusalem.
