

Holy Molly, Douche

Baby, gotta say that
Get the hell outta my mind
Maybe I'm just a wild cat
But grab your things and don't come back

Don't save your tears
It's easy to love me
Easy to love me, mmm
And all these years
You put a blame on me, on me
You're just a douche

This is what it feels like
Oouooo
This is what it feels like now

Honey, need your glasses
To look at my blurry heart?
Why you so passive and aggressive?
Walking barefoot in the dark

Don't save your tears
It's easy to love me
Easy to love me, mmm
And all these years
You put a blame on me, on me
You're just a douche

This is what it feels like
Oouooo
This is what it feels like now

Sorry I'm not sorry
I have no reason to be worried
So better not sell me that story
You were never in love, in love
You're just a douche
Dururu tururutu
Dururu tururutu
Dururu tururutu
You're just a douche
Dururu tururutu
Dururu tururutu
Dururu tururutu
You're just a douche

This is what it feels like
Oouooo
This is what it feels like now
You're just a DOUCHE
