

Holy Soldier, See No Evil

I float inside her womb
Oh mother, I am coming soon
Suddenly, fear and dread
When mother says she wants me dead

Oh how can you do this to me?

Thousands come
Please don't kill me
Thousands go
I want to live
Day by day
Can anyone hear me
The numbers grow
I want to live

God hears them cry
We hear the lie
And we simply look the other way

See no evil
Hear no evil
Speak no evil

From a pail with open eyes
I see the man that I desire
He looks at me and turns his back
As my life fades, it fades to black
And there's no turning back

(Mommy, can you hear me?)
Mommy, mommy, I'm afraid)

See no evil
Hear no evil
Speak no evil
