

Home Grown, Get A Job

I've been wasting my life for 19 years.
I'm tired of sitting around,
Watching football and drinking beer.
I don't want to go to work.
Pushed around by a fuckin jerk.
I don't wanna do anything.
But my life is in a rut.
An education I gave up.
I don't want to do anything.

Oh yeah! I'm going out to get a job.
I'm gonna rise up to the top.
I'm gonna make a million dollars.
A couple years have gone by,
I feel I'm getting old.
Nothing to do with my life.
I'm just a loser with nowhere to go
