

Home Grown, I'll Never Fall In Love

Tell me how you feel...
Because I don't think you care at all...

Confusing, transmissions, confirmed my suspicions,
I'm not gonna keep holding on...

Getting out...
I'm not gonna play your games.

I've made my decision,
No need for revision,
And I know that you don't feel the same...

But that's alright...

I've fallen past the point of return,
Tonight...

And there's no lesson here to be learned...
Except to never fall in love, again.

(Again!)

Are you listening?
Am I getting through at all?

I'm trying to save you from breaking your heart,
But I know you'll take the fall...

Talking to myself,
It's never really helped.

Yeah, I know talking to myself,
Never really helped.

But that's alright,
Yeah that's alright...

I've fallen past the point of return,
Tonight...

And there's no lesson here to be learned...
Except to never fall in love, again.

I'll never hold back...
I'll never give my heart to you again...

(Woo!)

But that's alright,
(Alright...)
Yeah that's alright...
(Yeah, it's alright...)
Alright...
(Alright...)
But that's alright...

I've fallen past the point of return,
Tonight...

And there's no lesson here to be learned...
Except to never fall in love,
No I'll never fall in love...
Again!
