

Home Grown, Reflections

Reflecting on what we once shared.
Now I know how much you really cared.
You cared for me.

I never did appreciate.
The sacrifices that you made.
You made for our love.
For our love.

Chorus:
I know that you deserve,
More than I could ever offer.
But I can't change who I am.

And if you knew what was in store.
Why did you persevere and endure.
As long as you did.
For our love.

Chorus

All the words I left unsaid.
I can't seem to get out of my head.
My head.

Believe me I meant you no harm, no harm.
I'm sorry.

Reflecting on what we once shared.
Now I know how much you really cared.
You cared for our love.
