

Home Town Hero, Bleeds In Blue today i'll start it with a lie i love it when you cry when all along, it hurts too but hey, a little lullaby can start with burning eyes when all along, she feels good

[Chorus:]

I'm caught up by the angel and its heart that bleeds in blue I want you to cut out my tounge so I can dip it into you some may say, they've heard it all before but I still can't believe that time you walked into my door and laugh everytime you open wide i'll end in twice the time when all along, I feel good

but hey, a little lullaby
when all along she feels good, feels good

[chorus]

oh, take me away
