

Home Town Hero, Hell Of A Guy

Lend me a shoulder
Over and over
I'm a misunderstanding
So why aren't you laughing
Do do do do do do do do do

I'm just a hell of a guy
I bet you're wondering why
You haven't heard of my name
But now I pay on my way

How did I hurt you
Look what I went through
Oh, my head wasn't working
I couldn't salute you
Do do do do do do do do do

I'm just a hell of a guy
I bet you're wondering why
You haven't heard of my name
But now I pay on my way
I'm just a hell of a guy
No matter how hard I try
I got a lot to say
You never feel quite the same

Do do do do do do do do do do
Do do do do do do do do do do

I'm just a hell of a guy
I bet you're wondering why
You haven't heard of my name
But now I pay on my way
I'm just a hell of a guy
No matter how hard I try, ya
I got a lot to say
You never feel quite the same
