

Home Town Hero, Saturday Morning

Mirror on the wall, who will cause my fall? my eyes are swollen wide, but hey take me by surprise color my insides
with all the little things you hate

[chorus:]
better kill me, tonight
before you see me cry
before you run another lifetime
better kill me, tonight
before you see me cry
before you lie

i can fill you in, i can fill you up but i still haven't seen you laugh when all i want is you, all i hate is you but i still havent made you dance too, oh

[chorus]
better kill me, tonight... oh better kill me, oh mother fucker, oh... yeah
