

Homegrown, I'll Never Fall In Love

Tell me how you feel.
Because I don't think you care at all.
Confusing transmissions confirm my suspicions.
So I'm not going to keep holding on.
I'm getting out.
I'm not going to play your games.
I've made my decision, no need for revisions
when I know that you don't feel the same.
But that's alright.
I'm far past the point of return tonight.
And there's no lesson here to be learned.
Except to never fall in love again.
Are you listening?
Am I getting through at all?
I'm trying to save you from breaking your heart.
But I know you'll take the fall.
Talking to myself has never really helped.
But that's alright.
Yeah that's alright.
I'm far past the point of return tonight.
And there's no lesson here to be learned.
Except to never fall in love again.
I'll never look back.
I'll never give my heart to you again.
But that's alright.
Yeah that's alright.
I'm far past the point of return tonight.
And there's no lesson here to be learned tonight.
Except to never fall in love again.
