

Honestly, All We Are

Could it be that we are wrong
The more we answer the less we know
Could it be that all along
We've just believed what we've been told
Don't call me that anymore
That's not my name
Is this all we are
Just a shooting star
A fading memory
What have I become?
Have I come undone?
Is there something more to me?
It shouldn't be hard, but it always is
And there's so much i don't understand
24 years can't make sense of this
Will I ever know who I am?
Don't call me that anymore
That's not my name
It doesn't matter anymore
I'll find my faith
Is this all we are
Just a shooting star
A fading memory
What have I become?
Have I come undone?
Is there something more to me?
Is this all we are?
Yeah...
Is this all we are?
There must be something more
Is this all we are
Just a shooting star
A fading memory
What have I become?
Have I come undone?
Is there something more to me?
Is this all we are
Just a shooting star
A fading memory
What have I become?
Have I come undone?
Is there something more to me?
Yeah.....
