

Honeymoon Suite, Funny Business

Should have known it,
All along
Once you worked me
You'd be gone

Just as well it,
Had to end, when I
Found you with,
My best friend

You'll be so lonely when I'm gone
No one can hold you like I do
It's such a shame that you're a bitch

I suspect it's your
Funny business that
Heard his name
In the night

I suspect it's your
Funny business now
Don't tell me
If it ain't right

There was one thing
You should know
I'm the one
Who'll run the show

Goodbye baby
Jokes on you
Burn me good
Now we're through

You'll be so lonely when I'm gone
No one can hold you like I do
It's such a shame that you're a bitch

I suspect it's your
Funny business that
Heard his name
In the night

I suspect it's your
Funny business now
Don't tell me
If it ain't right

I suspect it's your
Funny business that
Heard his name
In the night

I suspect it's your
Funny business now
Don't tell me
If it ain't right

I suspect it's your
Funny business that
Heard his name
In the night

I suspect it's your

Funny business now
Don't tell me
If it ain't right
