

Honeymoon Suite, Still Lovin You

Light in the window light of the day
Light of the fire so far away
Reachin' out in the darkness
No one is there
I live with doubt I live with pain
I live with silence nothin' to gain
Just these distant memories
Faded photographs
I've never been this way before
Gave up my heart and so much more
If we could only just start again but I know
You're not comin' back

So here I am
Lyin' here missin' you
Wherever you are
I'll still be lovin' you

I tried to run I tried to hide
I tried to forget keep it all inside
Went the distance but I'm Right back where I started
Now in the silence of an empty room
Somehow hopin' you'll come back soon
I want to hold you just one more time but I know
You're not comin' back

So here I am
Lyin' here missin' you
Wherever you are
I'll still be lovin' you

I want to hold you just one more time but I know
You're not comin' back

So here I am
Lyin' here missin' you
Wherever you are
I'll still be lovin' you
Wherever you go
Lyin' here missing you
Wherever you are
I'll still be lovin' you
Still lovin' you
Lyin' here missin' you
Wherever you go
I'll still be lovin' you
