

Hope Conspiracy, Ashcroft

(The Suicide File)

If what it boils down to is that "you're either for us or against us" I guess I've got a tough, tough choice to make cause hollow patriotic actions and reenactments don't move me and mostly this 21st century brand of propaganda and rhetoric co-produced by disney and sanitized by cgi just makes me sick and when I peer through the red, through the white, and through the blue - I can see people like you using tragedy to advance your own narrow moral crusade
