

Hope, *(GWIAZDKA)

I'm decided to write
But I'm not a good writer
I can't hide it
Maybe it's because of cocaine or whisky
But I so fuckin miss you
And I hope that you miss me

It's happen once
And it happen again
And it's true I want you and those 6 haineken
Two hearts one beat
A bunch o blondes
For lazy eyes
Watching cha chan tangs
After smoke
Before a sleep I smoke a weed
It's not much
But I think it's all we need
And I know the things to do
To our dreams come true
Coz you know want me
And I show I want you

I'm just a wrong guy
Fell in love
With a wrong girl
There's a wrong time, wrong place
On the wrong world
And we will never stop
And if it's a dream
Never wake me up!
/2x

It's a beautiful glimpse
I want to feel like this
I still remember every night
Every fight and every kiss
That's keeps me alive
So don't say goodbye
They say you never know if you never try
Don't you cry when they say
The we shouldn't be together
We can show all this motherfuckers
We really miss forever
This is how it's
And it always will be
...

I'm just a wrong guy
Fell in love
With a wrong girl
There's a wrong time, wrong place
On the wrong world
And we will never stop
And if it's a dream
Never

They never break us down!
