

Hopes Die Last, Lastnight's Goodbye

Open arms to reach my hands I'm afraid I realized
I'm afraid u're gonna leave this place Another way to feel again and again what gave sense to this what gave sense to my life this is the last time for a sight it's the night that ends all nights I wanna be the last frame in your eyes trying everyday to break the line that holds me tied strictly to the ground
And all!!!...my convictions fade away and what I'm holding on my chest It's your disappearing hand
And now!!!...I'm giving you my last kiss the last time I feel your breath Tell me... this isn't happening to me now it's up to you to find a way out of here so I became a stranger for you and even to myself now I can't smile no more cause it seems to be the end trying everyday to break the line
and what I'm holding on my chest
It's your disappearing hand
And now!!!...I'm giving you my last kiss
the last time I feel your breath it was never my dream to be with you no...never been my dream its meant to be... and now I'm here between heaven and ice but words are not friends of mine so all I got to say is goodbye
