

Horny Dogs, Poor Arabian Boy

Verse:

He was a poor man sitting in his giant palace
He hadn't any friends in whose he could trust
He just did what he thought
Because nobody told them right yeahhhh

Refrain:

Weapons of Mass destruction were his only friends
But you know they never existed so he hadn't any friends
The poor Arabian boy rich of large goods
Was a lonely dork living without pork

Verse:

There was a nation of whose he thought he could be friends
But all this nation wanted was his black gold
The Arabian boy felt immediately angered
So he said something satanic and now the others were raged
Yeahhhh

Refrain:

Weapons of Mass destruction were his only friends
But you know they never existed so he hadn't any friends
The poor Arabian boy rich of large goods
Was a lonely dork living without pork

Verse:

Now a war began against this Arabian bastard
He was found in a hole with a beard in the end
The Christian nation had won the war you could watch it on CNN
Yeahhhhh..

Refrain:

Weapons of Mass destruction were his only friends
But you know they never existed so he hadn't any friends
The poor Arabian boy rich of large goods
Was a lonely dork living without pork
