

Horrorpops, It's Been So Long

Can't you feel it
Something is
Going on here tonight
Anticipation
The boys are gathering up tonight

It's been so long, it's been too long
But maybe nothing has changed
Recognize every single face
Miss to run with them
Miss to ride with them

Rid of all the fear
That they were gone
I'm back to where i know i belong
One with all of them

I feel I belong

Can't you read it
Something is there
Between the lines
A special feeling
One of the pack
Friends beyond years

It's been so long
It's been too long
But nothing has changed
Recognize every single face
Years of conformity, years of absence
