

Horrorpops, Where You Can't Follow

I won't stay here no more
Gone where you can't follow
I know what i saw
Im choosing the door

I'm briefing you shortly
You're gonna lose
No matter how you try
Your just gonna abuse
Your last breath
I've been watching you mind
You've only been working
On another me
A smiling female machine

So you can love me more

You can kneel and cry
And tell me why
But it's not gonna change
{i can} feel these tears so clear
When i close my eyes
Burned in my conscience
Is the two of you
Close enough- but not too close
I saw you both
And my heart burned
