

Horse, You Are

Do your damned, devil and deep blue sea
Take my hand we'll forget who we are,
Be my strength, weakness too,
Do your damned, how could I hurt you now
I've got to be where you are Breathing you skin, your hair
Lying awake while you sleep
Closing the distance you keep,
I'm moving closer to you
there's nothing I wouldn't do it's gone beyond being a
drop in the ocean.
Dancing our lives away
Moving my heart this way Secrets are safe with me and you are, you are
Do your damned, devil and deep blue sea
Take my hand we'll forget who we are,
I dare to have, what I couldn't bare to lose,
Do your damned, how could I hurt you now
I've got to be where you are
Breathing you skin, your hair
Lying awake while you sleep
Closing the distance you keep,
I'm moving closer to you
there's nothing I wouldn't do
it's gone beyond being a
drop in the ocean.
Dancing our lives away
Moving my heart this way
Secrets are safe with me and
you are, you are
