Hot Hot Heat, Naked In The City Again

(Chorus)
Says she's got it all. (2x)
Says she's got it.
I don't wanna be the one to tell her that she don't.

But she just don't...

Late night, in a lonely city... So hard, she tries to look pretty. Boys don't even notice her though. She's in need of attention so.

Lost and naked in the city again... Intoxicated by a quarter to ten. Lost and naked in the city again. Begging for a piece of their attention.
