

Hot Like (A) Robot, The Gray Van

Well you're right, but you can't
Be right all the time
Place yourself in my shoes
Make me think that I took
Something from you
So tell me your point we don't even speak anymore
Say it out loud don't forgive me now (2x)
The blank stares I've spent many nights here
The gray van
She says I'll get through, wasted time
Wasted thoughts, I don't think
I can't take this anymore
But now, you're unimportant
