Hot Rod Circuit, Very Best Friend

So he says did you know IM your very best friend, I cant repeat this over, eye rings on the pillow, some think I might never really had the time, I thought you were my hero, never say that well be alive again.

the worst task coming and it will never get better run you down the worst task coming and it will never get better said you in that way the worst task coming and it will never get better run you down the worst task coming and it will never get better
