

Hot Water Music, Drunken Third

2:30 is lucky its late i'm still thirsty the band is still playing we're amped and still waiting lots of talk
lots of plans
lots of everything (still waiting)
lots of people letting politics control the scene... and who's listening it's time to take our place lock ourselves stand together accept the other face load ourselves we can't break this we're not done yet i can see a stand if we learn how to know how to let it go feels good connecting with the union all singing full hearted frustrated but backed up by my friends gotta try gotta fight
gotta never quit you're forgetting why we're here and what we're fighting for and who's listening LOCK ON
