

Hot Water Music, Elektra

As we stand united
There's forces to fight us
More taking than giving, an idea for living, but not the right one
Why fall without a fight
Hold your ground and stand
I'll sing until I die, so I'll live again
I don't want to stand divided
Hold my breath for decision
I will breathe
Until I'm lifted
Fail to recognize is nothing, letting it slide, that is something
Block them from your makings and show light
