

Hot Water Music, Freightliner driving all night and now your finally back again tell me where you've been southbound gotta get back home you're in town a couple days lets get on our way gonna raise some hell arm and arm we'll break the take down gonna fill myself will all my friends cause these are our nights to run through this again drinking all night and now it's time to wind down talk about what we found you only got until Friday to make it to Washington state tomorrow morning you'll be gone but we'll be here and we'll be waiting i can't wait but i'm still waiting for the next embrace just like the last one walks and talks of friendship that's neverending and stories of his trade

like we did in these days that keep us rolling he's never really leaving he's just rolling when we watch him drive away: go
