

Hot Water Music, Just Don't Say You Lost It

take a ride out of the city not yet on empty singing to myself like i've done so many times cause you're not around to ride with me i'll ride the ride anyway you're not around at all and i feel sick wide awake heaven's sake i'm sunk and breaking up this time who's signing off who's had enough this time you're done and we're breaking up so don't think trust is flowing easy now is when to question the questions when i used to trust you like i trust myself and what is trust when it's not sacred and so what will you say when it's time to cut me loose from your new life don't say you lost the feeling i'll bring it
