

Hot Water Music, Rest Assured

even though you won't see what i'm seeing i would love for you to feel what i'm feeling-the impact and the ease after rest assured the pain will fade right outside the inspiration is told i'll carry on what i know that is what i need for my sickness-a transition to new medium breakaway from the world and stick to rhythm rest assured the pain will fade if i don't walk blindsided i'll roll right if i hold sight i'll roll right i'm sure we see that same way just not from the same place i need a medium
i need a balance
