

Hot Water Music, This Early Grave

Take it away, I've had enough
And I should've known better
I should've known better
Take it away, my head is low
Like a burning lantern
I should've known better

In time my reactions slow

All day, running high and low
I try to stay distracted
But it's calling me in
In a bad way, in a nervous tone
That I should remember
I should've known better

In time my reactions slow
And I know the reason
In time my reactions slow
But I've got a reason
That I'm regarding
This early grave, this early grave
As my new garden

Take it away, I've had enough
And I should've known better
I should've known better
Take it away, my head is low
Like a burning lantern
I should've known better

In time my reactions slow
And I know the reason
In time my reactions slow
But I've got a reason
That I'm regarding
This early grave, this early grave
As my new garden
