

Hound Dog Taylor, My Baby's Coming Home

(Taylor & Eatmon)

Yes I ain't worried 'bout my baby
She'll be home tomorrow night
Yes I ain't worried 'bout my baby
She'll be home tomorrow night
She called me this morning
Told me "Hound Dog everything's alright"

Yes she called me this morning
She called me on the phone
Yes she called me this morning, babe
She called me on the phone
She said baby don't you worry
Ain't nothing going on wrong

Well I felt so good I almost broke down and cried
Yes I felt so good boy, I almost broke down and cried
My baby's coming home and this time it ain't no lie

She said babe
Everything is really alright
She said babe
Everything is really alright
I don't be there Saturday morning darling
I'll be there early tomorrow night
