

House Of Heroes, The Invisible Hook

You want a genocide?
We can avert our eyes tonight
You keep us entertained
We'll overlook your bloodstained hands
Money for gasoline
Is money for a vaccine. Alright
Living in apathy
We are living in abject poverty
You want a genocide?
We can avert our eyes tonight
You got a claim to fame?
We'll overlook the bloodstains on your hands
Everybody dance to the invisible hook
Yeah they can sell, they can sell, they can sell what they took Everybody's seein it but nobody look
Yeah they can sell, they can sell, they can sell what they took
We could've changed the world five times, if only we could open your eyes
Stuffing our ears with luxury
Covered our eyes in apathy
What can be done with our disease?
What can be done with our disease?
This is genocide, alright
This is suicide, alright
This is a blinded eye, alright
This is a violent crime, alright
I can see for miles and miles
Give us a guiding light
Give us a hope in the night
Give us a guiding light
I can see for miles and miles
Hypocrisy for miles and miles
Open our eyes for miles and miles
