House Of Heroes, Your Wurlitzer

I did a casting call it came out all wrong you got the lead role you want the walk on the other passers-by they dont have a clue that when I wrote the part I wrote it for you baby

Chorus
you try too hard to get it it only takes a minute
here and now
its right in front of you it doesnt matter to you you're only twenty and two like a canon
locked and loaded

I hear your wurlitzer
I hear it playing a tune its so beautiful
its just like you
its in a minor key but has a major resolve I hope we can
I think we can after all baby

the akward the floating the silence and the choking the mystery urgency the passion and the irony
