

House Of Large Sizes, I'm My Own Grandpa (Pt 2)

Had it been any other day
You moved your things to California
And had I seen another way
You need to feel that loving embrace
Since they commenced it
I've been against it
I'm glad to be another mile
I saw the Claus in Okidonia
He said "Well, I could kill you"
But said in such a loving way
Since they commenced it
I've been against it
Had it been any other time
You moved your things to Okidonia
Now I jump at every shadow
A little fun, they take your house away
Since they commenced it
I've been against it
