

House Of Large Sizes, Walking Thru The Park

Walking through the park I was reminded of the time
You was left
Flowers hangin' in your hair
I tell you man I was a little scared
Of you

[CHORUS:]

Now I'm feeling just forbidding a wandering lusty thought
What is (?) what is (?), hell, it's fine by me
Your old man's a hippie CD player
That's all right, that's all right
Walking through the park I was reminded of the field
I hear it calling
Well smoke and such was in the air
I tell you man I really cared
Well, just a little

(CHORUS)

Walking through the dark I was reminded of the time
That you was left
The sound of you and all those stares
I tell you man, I'm really scared
Of you
Now I'm wasting, just replacing a dusty wandering thought
What is (?) what is (?), hell, (?)
Your old man's a hippie CD player
That's all right, that's all right
