

How To Dress Well, The One (ft. Tala)

You can wrong and tell you're basic branding,
That I want it like all the time
They don't want to see me taking you there
But I'm the one who's by your side
And they tryina tell you just to forget,
And they wanna tell you that we've got no chance
They don't know, they don't know, they don't know
No, no, no, no!

They don't know walk in our shoes, in out feet
It takes time to last forever!
They don't seem always seek in our dreams
It takes time to last forever!

On my phone when you're calling baby
Says the world, seen you out and screaming
All these years, all I'm telling you
Is still being in love.

I don't get it, they don't think that you're fine
'Cause I know it was all this time
Would you call me up and taking me there,
You're the only one being on my mind
I want to tell you don't go nowhere,
And I don't care if we've got no chance
'Cause we'll be on the future romance
All night long

They don't know walk in our shoes, in out feet
It takes time to last forever!
They don't seem always seek in our dreams
It takes time to last forever!

On my phone when you're calling baby
Says the world, seen you out and screaming
All these years, all I'm telling you
Is still being in love.

They don't know walk in our shoes, in out feet
It takes time to last forever!
They don't seem always seek in our dreams
It takes time to last forever!
